European Award for Languages-The Language Label 2008

The European Award for Languages - The Language Label recognises creative and inventive ways to improve the quality of language teaching and learning. Schools, colleges, universities, businesses and other institutions engaged in language initiatives are invited to apply. Applications should be innovative, effective and replicable.

The priorities for 2008 are:

- Intercultural Dialogue
- Languages and Business
- Language Learning and Technology

These priorities are not exclusive and applications from all kinds of language projects will be welcome.

Closing date for application: 31 March 2008
