

Course Syllabus

Introduction to the Modern History of Africa 7.5 Credits*, First Cycle

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course, students will be able to:

- explain basic features of 19th and 20th century African history
- explain continuity and change in 19th and 20th century African history
- discuss and analyse problems in the study of the modern and contemporary history of Africa
- discuss the significance of Africa in contemporary global developments.

Course Content

With an emphasis on Sub-Saharan Africa, the course comprises studies of Africa's modern history and current political events, which includes the reading and discussion of introductory works that present different perspectives on socio-economic, political, religious, cultural and gender-related matters.

Assessment

Prepared and active participation in seminars, and oral and written presentations of associated assignments constitute a continuous form of examination.

Forms of Study

Lectures and obligatory seminars.

Grades

The Swedish grades U–VG.

Prerequisites

General entry requirements

Other Information

For online courses, students require access to a computer, headset or desk microphone, web camera and internet connection.

Subject:

History

D.no: -
Page 2(2)
GHI2Q6

Group of Subjects:

History

Disciplinary Domain:

Humanities, 100%

This course can be included in the following main field(s) of study:

1. History

Progression Indicator within (each) main field of study:

1. G1N

Approved:

Approved 24 May 2021

Valid from 24 May 2021