

Course Syllabus

Chinese Oral Proficiency I 7.5 Credits*, First Cycle Level 1

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of the course, students shall be able to:

- communicate with simple sentences in modern Chinese
- speak with ease and intelligible pronunciation at the basic level
- follow a conversation at this level without great difficulty
- deal with a number of cultural codes that occur in daily situations.

Course Content

The course comprises five parts, that build on each other. Within the course students work with pre-planned and spontaneous practical activities: role play, interviews, practice dialogues, short speeches and different listening exercises. The course is primarily designed to develop oral and listening proficiency, but may also include some writing exercises.

Assessment

The students are examined continuously through the assessment of active participation in seminars and assignments as well as through a final oral examination.

Forms of Study

Chinese is used as the language of instruction, with English or Swedish as a support language. Teaching is done in the form of class and group activities.
