

Course Syllabus

Diabetes Care I 7.5 Credits*, Second Cycle

Learning Outcomes

After the completion of this course the student will be able to:

- Explain diabetes regarding patophysiology, symptoms, prevention, prognosis, and diabetes-related complications.
- Identify individuals with diabetes as well as diabetes-related complications.
- Assess treatment among adults living with diabetes type 1 and type 2.
- Demonstrate an understanding of adults living with diabetes related to their living conditions.
- Assess needs of self-management among adults living with diabetes during different phases of life.
- Identify need of support among adults living with diabetes during different phases of life.
- Support self-management decision-making among adults living with diabetes during different phases of life.
- Identify the role of the diabetes nurse in relation to different health-care professions.
- Be informed about the Swedish National Diabetes Register as a basis for quality improvement.

Course Content

.

Assessment

.

Forms of Study

.

Grades

The Swedish grades U–G.

.

Prerequisites

Degree of Science in Nursing, Degree of Occupational Therapist, Degree of Physiotherapist or Degree of Dietician

Other Information

.

Subject:

Nursing

Group of Subjects:

Nursing Science

Disciplinary Domain:

Health Science, 50%

Medicine, 50%

This course can be included in the following main field(s) of study:

1. Nursing

Progression Indicator within (each) main field of study:

1. A1N

Approved:

Approved 15 April 2020

Valid from 15 April 2020