

Course Syllabus

Chinese Practical Writing 7.5 Credits*, First Cycle

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course, students will be able to:

- compose short Chinese texts within a variety of writing genres or forms such as letters, diaries, (book) reviews, reports and summaries
- correctly use Chinese conjunctions, prepositions, particles and interjections
- master the use of Chinese punctuation
- understand the conventions of Chinese writing
- review, revise and edit an essay according to standard Chinese Mandarin grammar and writing format.

Course Content

Students perform a variety of exercises including reading, writing, and revising shorter texts and essays. Students also have to complete weekly writing assignments.

Assessment

This course applies continuous assessment. Student performance is assessed on the basis of regular written assignments, active participation in seminars and a final written exam.

Forms of Study

This course is composed of lectures, practical exercises and discussions. Chinese is used as the language of tuition, with English or Swedish as support languages. Teaching takes place both for the whole class and in smaller groups.

Grades

The Swedish grades U–VG.

Prerequisites

60 credits in Chinese at First cycle, including the courses Chinese in Speech and Writing II, 15 credits, Chinese Oral Proficiency II, 7.5 credits and Chinese Characters II, 7.5 credits

Other Information

Replaces KI1032.

D.no: -
Page 2(2)
GKI2PX

Subject:

Chinese

Group of Subjects:

Chinese

Disciplinary Domain:

Humanities, 100%

This course can be included in the following main field(s) of study:

1. Chinese

Progression Indicator within (each) main field of study:

1. G2F

Approved:

Approved 3 May 2021

Valid from 3 May 2021