

Course Syllabus

Globalisation - Meanings and Consequences 7.5 Credits*, First Cycle Level 1

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course the student should be able to:

- Account for the core concepts and the different perspectives related to the globalisation debate
- Show insights into the processes of globalisation and their impact on the changing role of the state, nation and the individual
- Independently identify, problematise and critically discuss current socio-political issues related to the globalisation debate.

Course Content

The course introduces and examines the concept of globalisation and raises questions concerning challenges of global transformation and of global integration. Different perspectives on the significance and consequences of globalisation for the state, nation and the individual are examined in order to highlight the multifaceted dimensions of the concept.

Assessment

Written take-home examination, written and oral presentations and active participation of the student during seminars.

Forms of Study

Lectures and mandatory seminars.

Grades

The Swedish grades U–VG.

Number of credits:

- Written examination, written and oral presentations, 7.5 credits.

Prerequisites

General entry requirements and English 6

Other Information

The course is included in the course package International Relations I. The course is equivalent to SK1044.

Subject:

Political Science

Group of Subjects:

Political Science

Disciplinary Domain:

Social Science, 100%

This course can be included in the following main field(s) of study:

1. International Relations

Progression Indicator within (each) main field of study:

1. G1N

Approved:

Approved 13 February 2015

Valid from 31 August 2015