The University

Doctoral Student or Applicant

Announcement: Doctoral Students The Doctoral Student position is budgeted for within the budget of the respective Research Profile. The Head of School reports the Doctoral Student position to Human Resources.

Advertising of Position

The Study Director, on behalf of the Head of Research, is responsible for advertising the position in cooperation with the Human Resources Department.

The advertisement details the requirements as set out in the general study plan and those that are specific for the actual position of employment/Doctoral Student position.

Selection

The Head of Research, in consultation with the Head of School, selects a candidate from those applicants who meet the qualification requirements. The Doctoral Student is informed of the decision. Applications for the position of Doctoral Student are sent to platsansokan@du.se.

Application for admission

Decision on admission

Registration of admission

Individual Study Plan (ISP)